Lee Chilson Takes Over News Post

Lee Chilson, former managing editor of the Chula Vista Star-News and its three affiliated newspapers, has assumed the post of news editor of the Lemon Grove Review and the Spring Valley Bulletin, Max Goodwin, editor and publisher, announced this week.

Chilson was affiliated with the Star-News publications for nine years, left the Star-News for a post in Oregon, but elected to return to San Diego county. Before joining the Star-News staff he edited a daily newspaper in Williston, N. Dak., his native state.

Chilson, his wife Gloria and five children, Kelly Lee, 13, Kirk Louis, 9, Paul, 7, Bill, 4 and Ann Beth, 1, now reside in Nestor but expect to move to the Lemon Grove area soon.

Reds' Methods Theme of Talk

Stanley Sharp, head of the security division at Convair, will be guest speaker at the foothills Methodist Church Sunday evening. He will speak on "The Methods of Communism."

This is part of the church's program on Communism, with the theme being "Time For Decision."

The meeting, which is a forum type of meeting, will begin at 7 p.m., with the Rev. John Kerr, pastor of the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church as moderator. Following the talk by Stanley Sharp there will be a 20-minute question and answer period.

This series of meetings on Communism is being well received by the people of the community as well as by the educators and clergy, says Rev. James King, pastor. There were more than 275 in attendance at the last Sunday night meeting, Rev. King said.

Wheels, Tires Taken From Parked Car Here

William Eugene Lowman, 7504 North Ave., Lemon Grove, an employee of Bill's Service, reported to sheriff's officers Sunday the theft of two wheels and two tires from his automobile.

Youth Shot by Sheriff Files $50,000 Suit Against County

A claim of $50,000 was filed this week against the county by a Spring Valley youth who charges that he was shot and wounded January 19 by sheriff's deputies when he refused to stop his car at the deputies' order in the 9300 block of Lamar St.

The youth, Kenneth Calvin Cox, 19, of 10639 Eureka Rd., Spring Valley, said he was not in violation of any law when he was shot and wounded. Deputies fired several shotgun and pistol bullets at him, puncturing his car in several places. A .38-caliber slug went into his right shoulder. He said he may lose partial use of his right arm as a result of the shooting.

He said that the two deputies, Jay McBride and Richard A. Buchanan, were not justified or required to use such force.

Not Injured
A passenger, Jerry Brummet, 20, formerly of Lemon Grove and now of Johnstown, was not injured in the shooting.

The claim was filed by F. E. Gallagher, attorney for Cox, who asks $25,000 general damages and $25,000 exemplary damages. Cox said he would seek damages for medical ex-persons attended the event. This year, according to Bob Sutton, club president, attendance is expected to be increased due to a three-day personal appearance visit here of Aunt Jemima. She is scheduled to make 11 non-commercial appearances at local schools to advertise the Festival. She will also provide a program during the Festival. Aunt Jemima is a professional movie entertainer, Sutton said.

As an added attraction at the Festival, members of the San Diego football Chargers will give autographs.

The Festival will be held from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. and the menu will consist of ham, pancakes, coffee, butter and syrup. Folgers will contribute the coffee. Quaker Oats Co. is furnishing the Aunt Jemima pancake flour without charge.

Members of the Kiwanis club will be cooks. Kiwanians will serve as waitresses and members of the club's Key Club at Mt. Miguel high school will be bus boys.

Tickets may be obtained from any member of the Kiwanis club or at the office of the Lemon Grove Review, according to Ken Conrad, chairman of the Aunt Jemima project.

SD Firm Low On LG School Additions

Houghton Construction Co. of San Diego was low bidder for additions to Palm Junior high and Monterey Heights schools. The bid was $364,750, about $20,000 lower than School District Business Manager Paul Reynolds estimated it would be. Next lowest bid was $372,400 by Morrison and Christensen. Bids were opened Monday night at the district's regular school board meeting.

The board approved preliminary plans for multipurpose rooms at Mt. Vernon and Vista La Mesa schools. Bids will probably be called in June with completion expected near fall school starting time.

The March 13 board meeting was moved up to March 16 to become part of the program of the Palm Junior High PTA. The board will meet at 7:30 in the Palm teachers' room, move to the auditorium at 8 and carry on board business until the allotted program time runs out. They will then conclude the meeting back in the teachers' room.

Lumber Thefts Investigated

Sheriff's officers this week are investigating the theft of lumber from James A. Eppick, a carpenter, of 1515 Skyline Dr., Lemon Grove. Eppick told the sheriff's officers two youths came to his place recently, wanted to purchase some lumber, but were told it was not for sale. He said ever since that time lumber has been disappearing. He said 14 26-ft. beams have been taken. The lumber, Eppick said, is from an old government barracks and is value at about $165.

Deputies Ralph Lowe and Doc Fox are investigating.

Lemon Trees Return to Lemon Grove

NAMESAKE — "When it's Lemon Time in Lemon Grove we'll be selling More To You" might very well be the title of a song to go with this picture. In it is Ed Koester, manager of the Lemon Grove chamber of commerce, examining one of the many lemon trees being set up along Broadway. The project is one of the merchants division of the chamber designed to attract more people to the shopping area of the community. Koester points out that the bearing lemon trees will not usurp any of the generous quantities of parking space available to Lemon Grove shoppers. "We're also proud that we haven't got a parking meter in the whole town," Koester added. Entire shopping area was a lemon orchard a few years ago, he reminded.

County Nixes Plea For Dental Office

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A Lemon Grove dentist's plea to be allowed to use a residence on Skyline drive for a dental office was rejected Friday by the County Planning Commission, despite conflicting recommendations from the commission's staff.

The commission turned a deaf ear on L. J. McLaughlin's request for a change from duplex to residential-professional zoning for property on the east side of Skyline at Sanford drive, even though the dentist's wife, Rosemary, declared during the hearing that Skyline is "too busy" for residential zoning and has "too many children." She said "many" for sale signs have appeared since it has become known that the street is to be widened to permit even heavier traffic.

The commission's southern committee had recommended the request be approved because "there is a need for an R-P zone in this area."

But the planning department staff's report pointed out there is a large "properly located existing C" commercial zone only 350 feet to the south which is only partially developed, and "which can accommodate all business and R-P enterprises necessary to serve this neighborhood."

The staff report said the McLaughlin property is occupied by a single-family dwelling within a large, compact residential area that is developed with single-family homes and few duplexes.

McLaughlin had proposed to retain the outward appearance of the residence, and provide off-street parking for patients.

Bicycle Found
A Royal Sabre English racing bike has been found and turned over to sheriff's officers, they said this week, Jay Dean Lazear, 1918 Skyline Dr., Lemon Grove, found the bicycle in a lot in front of his home last Saturday. Serial number of the bike is No. 78855.

OPPONENTS OF LAW PUSH REFERENDUM

Enforcement of County's Split Lot Ordinance Starts Monday

The DIMMER VIEW

by MAX GOODWIN

Dr. Jacobus tenBroek, chairman of the state board of Social Welfare, bitterly criticized the handling of San Diego county's welfare program in a visit to San Diego this week.

He said that the county's conservative attitude was "regressive". Precisely, he said that San Diego's recent investigations by the district attorney and sentences by our courts of those found guilty of fraud in the Aid To Needy Children program here were some of "the worst instances of regressive tendency in welfare programs."

Adding to Dr. tenBroek's injury is the fact that the county board of supervisors which is responsible for administering the county, state and federal welfare funds, is the author of the conservative principle of welfare funds distribution.

The state people are particularly upset by District Attorney Don Keller who has been able to make charges stick that families are splitting up conveniently to gain funds from the Aid To Needy Children program. Yet, these same husbands spend the week-end at home, when welfare workers are off duty. The family often isn't broken at all but the taxpayer foots the bill for the care and keep of his family. In other cases Keller has shown that illegitimate children are being exploited for the profits available under the ANC program. It has become apparent to practically everyone, welfare officials excluded, that fraud is being conducted by some recipients with the knowledge of some welfare case workers.

A threat has been made several times by the state Welfare board that interference with the free and easy distribution of these tax funds will result in the loss of all welfare aid to the county. By such a measurement, the district attorney who is charged with defending the rights of all citizens, including the taxpayer, is guilty of constitutional heresy when he interferes with the welfare department processes.

The ANC program was set up to aid genuinely needy children whose parental breadwinner is absent. Not absent by welfare income convenience, either.

It seems strange that we must muster our forces to seek governmental honesty from the welfare people. It is even more strange that the department threatens to stop all welfare aid here unless dishonesty is condoned.

The district attorney and the board of supervisors are to be commended for the position they have taken.

Demand by organized labor for unemployment payments in California to be raised from $50 a week to $95 a week payable over 39 weeks instead of the present 26-weeks schedule is jarring some of our state legislators. Funds would be raised by increasing payroll taxes.

The demand brings about an entirely new concept of the unhappy condition of unemployment. Obviously, every unemployed person is not eligible for $95 a week, but if the recession continues for a long time, this maximum payment sets the standard by which the needs would be measured.

By such measurement, the $95-a-week maximum becomes at once a reasonable and unreasonable amount of aid.

Few people, we believe, actually seek unemployment because unemployment creates a dull and dreary sociological effect. Yet, a person scheduled to draw $95 a week for nearly a year would have to do some mighty serious soul-searching.

County Sets Values on Park Sites

Lemon Grove has $146,460 in assets in park and recreation holdings according to the county department of public works. C. J. Rust, chief of aviation and property management for San Diego County reported the total to Dr. Dennis McLaughlin, president of the Lemon Grove Coordinating Council.

He listed the following holdings: Lemon Grove Community (Youth Center) School lane and Golden avenue, $29,960 (land $10,000; building $19,960); Alton and Washington property (proposed green-spot park) $67,000;

Monterey Heights Park (Little League field), (land $25,700; building $23,300) total, $49,000. Grand total, $146,460.

Dr. McLaughlin said the material would be given to the park committee chairman, Mrs. Lee Nottingham, as a guide for future action.

Dr. McLaughlin said that most of the appraisal appeared in line except for the Community Center land value which he said should be worth considerable more than $10,000.

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — With enforcement of the county's new "lot split" control ordinance scheduled to begin next Monday, the Board of Supervisors was unable to agree this week on the form of a reply to opponents of the ordinance seeking to block it by referendum petition.

Three weeks ago the Citizens Assn. for Better Government, in a letter signed by Lou Citro as "coast director," reminded the Board that the county counsel had advised it to ignore the petitions being circulated by the association to block enforcement of the ordinance, and the association urged the Board to "correct this mistake."

The Supervisors referred the letter to the county counsel's office to draft a reply.

DRAFT OFFERED

Tuesday, Bertram McLees Jr., assistant county counsel, offered the Board a draft of a reply to Citro affirming that the Supervisors would follow the advice of the county counsel, whose advice was based on an opinion that under state law the ordinance was effective Jan. 6, 30 days after passage, and the petitions seeking its repeal by the Board or a vote by the people should have been filed by that date.

The association contends that it has until March 6 to file the petitions because that is the date the Supervisors wrote into the ordinance for its enforcement to begin. The delay was to allow the county planning department time to set up ad-

Prizes, Models Set to Draw Easter Shoppers

More than a dozen firms will be represented in an hour-long outdoor fashion show as a high spot in a three-day sales promotion by Lemon Grove business firms, March 16-17-18.

Pretty models will parade the season's fashions on the plaza from 2 to 3 p.m. Saturday, March 18. Immediately following the show, a giant drawing will be held in which many hundreds of dollars worth of merchandise will be distributed to lucky townspeople.

The event will be the merchants' annual Easter promotion but happy-go-lucky St. Pat will carry part of the theme because his birthdate comes midway in the promotion, said Skip Degenhart, manager of Don Diego Markets who is president of the merchants group.

EASTER MOTIF

Local shops will have merchandise on display in the usual Easter style motif but many of the shopkeepers will be wearing the green, Irish hats, pipes and sleeveholders will give the Easter event just the proper touch of Erin according to Patricia Hutchinson, herself born an O'Brien not too many years ago. She operates Patricia's Sportswear and is in overall charge of the promotion.

Barbara Howell, CP Appliances, is assisting her.

Valuable prizes will be given by way of a drawing at 3 p.m. March 18, according to Leone Moore, chairman of the prize event. She said coupons would

Michael's Cafe Closes Here

Michael's, Lemon Grove's famed eating spot, did not open for business Tuesday and will remain closed for an indefinite period, according to Pete Zucchini, manager of the firm.

The restaurant, at 7828 Broadway, has been under the ownership of Joe Papitto for the past three years, according to Zucchini. Papitto, also owner of the Aztec Fence Co., suffered ill health last year and was in and out of the hospital several times.

The restaurant was opened in 1951 by Henry Goldy who named it after his son. The restaurant was sold to the Papitto interests in 1958. Goldy now operates El Morocco in Lemon Grove.

Michael's adopted a policy last year of bringing Las Vegas talent here to attract patronage. The first in a series of performers were the Ink Spots. Zucchini said the decision to re-open will be left to creditors of the firm.

County Sets TOP SPEAKER ADVANCES Weening Wins LG Lions Contest

Dave L. Weening, a senior at Mt. Miguel High School, Thursday won first place in the Lemon Grove Lions Club annual student speakers contest. Dudley Griffen and John Ball, juniors at the same school, were runners up.

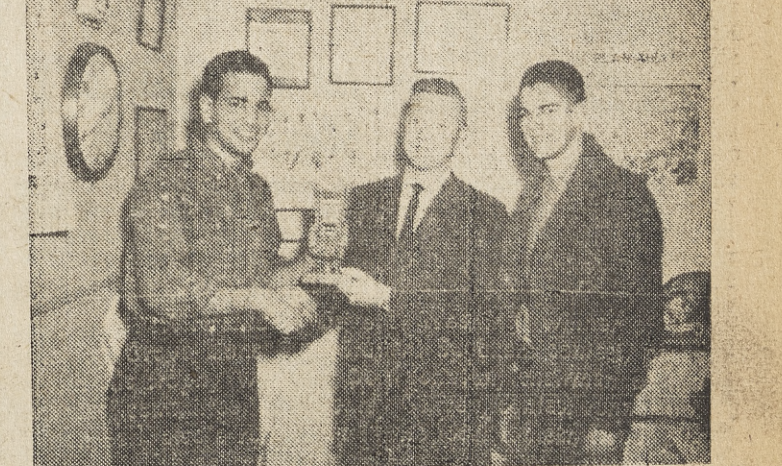

Student speakers spoke on the theme, "Our National Heritage, Patterned for Today." Dr. Don Johnson was in charge of the local contest.

The contest is part of the 1961 District 4 Lions speech contest. Weening will compete against winners in other local contests with students from Trarford, El Cajon Valley, Hoover, Helix and Grossmont High Schools representing area Lions clubs, Monday, March 13 at the El Cajon Masonic Temple.

The winner at El Cajon will then compete against the winner of the South Bay area contest in El Cajon later in the month and the winner of that contest will advance to the 41st annual, scheduled in May during the Lions convention at Palm Springs.

Grand finale of the contest is set for June with the winner receiving a $1,500 scholarship and the three runners up each winning a $500 scholarship.

This year marks the 24th annual contest.

If he were to have to choose between giving up that sort of public aid to take a job at which he would make no more, or even less, than $95 a week.

The ones who insist that persons unemployed because of conditions beyond their control are entitled to an income that meets the average American income are, of course, talking Socialism.

A major argument against such a proposition is that unemployment and unemployment "benefits" are not intended to be permanent. In such a temporary difficulty, those who must pay the bill should be willing to help their neighbors, but it is the unfortunate neighbor who should be willing to make the greater sacrifice.

A good, sound reason for this approach is the fact that most of the cost comes from those who supply the payroll. Business failures are already increasing daily because of inability to meet present too-high tax demands. Many firms on the brink of failure will topple as more tax burden is added. This in turn, adds more people to the unemployment rolls.

May we never see the day when an American goes hungry, but the day of national bankruptcy is brought nearer as the source of national income, the payroll, dries up.

Adding taxes, whether it is for unemployment or for some of our foolish world ventures, is setting a mighty fast pace over a rough and rugged road already strewn with financial wreckage.

$200,000,000! That's the amount spent every year by arthritis victims for quack treatments that can't possibly do them any good. There's a reason for the flourishing quackery. The cause of arthritis is a medical mystery. There is as yet no cure. And the disease is extremely painful.

There are two main forms of arthritis: Rheumatoid arthritis — attacks the connective tissues which hold organs, bones, and muscles together. Symptoms include pain, swelling and stiffness in joints, and large, hard bumps under the skin. Later there is fever, loss of weight, and anemia. Without medical attention, there can be severe crippling.

Osteoarthritis — the arthritis of advancing years, common to almost all people over fifty. Lubricating fluid between the joints disappears, and the cartilage or padding wears away. Knees, hips and spine become stiff and painful.

While a doctor cannot cure rheumatoid arthritis, he can control it. Prompt medical treatment, begun at the first warning signs, can reduce pain and crippling for most patients. With osteoarthritis, a doctor can prescribe treatment for the stiffness, and drugs for the pain.

Nobody who promises a cure for either form of arthritis can possibly deliver. Drugs, diets, devices and treatment centers advertised as "cures" are worthless at the best, and can be downright dangerous. They are also expensive. A physician can help an arthritis victim. No one else can.

Woman Asks Return Of Cards, Papers

Mrs. Velma A. Papagni, operator of a gift shop at 7909 Broadway, Lemon Grove, reported to sheriff's officers last week the theft of a wallet from her store.

The wallet, she told the officers, was in her purse. She said she would not prosecute if the social security card, credit cards and other identification were returned.

Los Bailadores Club Stages Ball in SD

A pair of enormous clasped hands and a giant engraved invitation card highlighted the decor at the "Getting-To-Know-You" Ball of the Los Bailadores Dance Club, Saturday.

The affair, held at the San Diego Woman's Clubhouse, was further decorated with humorous wall posters bringing out the theme. Chairmen for the event were Larry and Virginia Stillman, long-time Lemon Grove residents. They were assisted by Messrs. and Mrs. George Sanger, George Oliver and David Findlay.

1800 Styles Shown

RED CROSS — Howard Muhleman, district chairman for the 1961 Red Cross drive in this area, accepts first contribution from the La Presa-Spring Valley-Casa de Oro district chairman Fred Hansen. Assistant to Chairman Hansen, Chet Smith, looks on. Needs for funds for Red Cross this year stems from underfunding of the Community Chest, Hansen said. Contributions to Red Cross may be made through the office of the La Presa Water District, of which Hansen is chairman of the board, or through the Spring Valley chamber of commerce which is represented by Smith.

Heart Sunday Donors Give $3299 Here

Heart Sunday contributions in the Lemon Grove, Spring Valley and Encanto areas topped the $3200 mark, officials of the San Diego County Heart Assn., said today.

Volunteer workers canvassed the area Sunday as a climax to the annual campaign for funds to combat heart disease.

In Lemon Grove and Spring Valley association officials said, $2,599.54 was collected Sunday. In the Encanto area approximately $700 was picked up by the volunteers. Both of these figures are preliminary, officials said. The final count is expected next week.

Workers Listed
Mrs. W. Allen Moss, of 4366 North Rogers Rd., Spring Valley, was vice-chairman for this area. She said volunteers worked from about noon until 4 p.m. on Heart Sunday.

Area chairmen who worked with Mrs. Moss include Mrs. Verda A. Lyng, 8749 Carole Circle, La Mesa; Mrs. E. I. Pharex, 3409 Washington Ave., Lemon Grove; Mrs. Madge Huber, 2076 Washington Ave., Lemon Grove; Mrs. R. C. Miller, 6335 Semitar Dr., San Diego and Mrs. J. Hudson, 612 Chester St., San Diego.

Mrs. C. J. Teigen, of 8110 Baldwin St., Lemon Grove, was Lemon Grove's general chairman for the campaign.

The Heart Sunday canvas here was one of 10,000 across the nation. Volunteers presented an official heart fund envelope for the donor's convenience. For families away from home on Heart Sunday, volunteers left pre-addressed envelopes so that contributions could be mailed in.

Ten-Foot Fence Here Gains Planner Okay

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — The Richfield Oil Co. was granted permission Friday to build a six-foot retaining wall topped by a four-foot fence along the east side of a proposed service station at Imperial avenue and Lincoln street in Lemon Grove.

The County Planning Commission approved the variance after being told that the wall and fence would obscure the view of the station from dwellings to the east across Citronella street.

The property is owned by Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 2082.

Stolen Bicycles Found by Youth

Two bicycles, one of them taken from the Monterey Heights School last week, have been found in a vacant lot on Ensenada street in Lemon Grove, the sheriff's office said this week.

Mrs. Delores Dean, 1977 Ensenada St., told Deputy J. Hartshorn that her 11-year-old son had seen two boys about his own age leave two bikes on a vacant lot adjacent to the Dean home.

One of the bicycles answered the description of one that had been taken from the school and has been returned to its owner. The other one, a 24-inch Columbia Torpedo, is still impounded at the Lemon Grove sheriff's station.

Deputy Injured

Deputy Sheriff Alfred Dart suffered a sprained thumb in an accident on Gorge road last week when the right front tire of the car he was driving blew out, hit a chuck hole in the road, causing the steering wheel to spin and catch Dart's hand.

Kids and Matches Cause Two Fires

Kids and matches—the fireman's old bugaboo—caused two fires here last week with no damage reported.

A spokesman for the Lemon Grove Fire Dept. said a unit was called to 3119 Chateau way Friday afternoon to put out a minor brush fire. Youngsters were blamed for the blaze, were gone when the firemen arrived.

Saturday youngsters started a fire in a storm drain at Palm and Imperial avenues. Firemen were forced to crawl 150 feet into the drain to make sure no one was trapped by the smoke and fire, caused when the youngsters piled up rubbish and lit it.

The department answered one first aid call during the week. They aided a woman suffering from reaction to a penicillin injection and stood by while her doctor treated her.

LG Youths Admit Theft of Honey

Three Lemon Grove youths have been turned over to the County Probation Dept. after admitting the theft of a carton of honey from the Prevost Bros. Packing House, 7920 Imperial Ave., Lemon Grove.

Sheriff's officers said the three pried open a rear door of the packing house, used paper torches to light their way to the refrigerator where the honey was being stored. Two of the youths are 16, the other 14.

Split Lot Ordinance

Supervisor Robert Cozens administrative machinery. asked McLees, "Are we saying in this letter that we will not accept the petitions?"

McLees replied, "We are saying we will not accept them and that they will be referred to court for a determination of their legality."

BIRD, DENT IN FAVOR

With Supervisor Frank A. Gibson absent, the line-up of Supervisors was Cozens and De Graff Austin against the proposed letter, and David W. Bird and Robert C. Dent in favor of it.

So Bird suggested that the matter be taken under advisement, and the other members agreed.

Meanwhile, a hint of disagreement in the ranks of the ordinance's opponents over methods to be used in fighting it was contained in a letter to the Board from W. H. Seegar of Vista.

LETTER READ

"The Citizens Assn. for Better Government has established a committee who have faith in an approach of polite diplomacy," Seegar wrote.

"There is another faction which has faith in only the tools to crush this ordinance," his letter continued. "This faction is not to be identified with the Citizens Assn. for Better Government despite the fact that individuals may be associated with both bodies."

The new ordinance, passed by the Supervisors last Dec. 8 after many months of bitter public hearings, is intended to regulate divisions of land into fewer than five parcels and to insure that all building sites conform to size requirements, be of suitable shape for building, and have proper access to streets, sewers and drainage.

Its opponents claim it is cumbersome and places too much power in the hands of the county planning director. The Supervisors insist that, while the planning department is charged with administering the ordinance, the administrators must follow the rules set forth in the ordinance by the Supervisors and all decisions may be appealed to the Supervisors.

Public Warned Against Cancer Quacks, Fake Reducing Drugs by Better Business Bureau

Despite more than 75-million dollar outlays in private and government spending last year for cancer research, its nature and occurrence makes cancer victims and their families highly susceptible to advertised cancer quackery, Cecil Candler, manager of the Better Business Bureau said today.

Grant Leake, Senior Food and Drug Inspector for the State Department of Public Health said the influx of senior citizens into the Southern California area tends to attract cancer quacks, and bunco health artists to San Diego.

Leake, who is responsible for an eight-county area in Southern California, said that quacks bilk the public for more than $3-million in phony cancer cures annually.

Candler warned the public to avoid falling prey to the mirage of cures, and consult a reputable physician, or the American Cancer Society, for factual knowledge and advice on cancer.

"Because the public is afraid of cancer," Candler said, "more quacks have sprung up recently to exploit these fears." The quacks falsely claim all cancers are curable; falsely state that it's cheaper to visit the quack than a reputable physician; falsely implant fear of surgery or radiation compared to their "painless" miracle methods; falsely label cancer as a social stigma and falsely hold out straws of hope to people in an incurable terminal cancer condition, for exorbitant fees.

Leake said a veritable dream-world exists in cancer cures.

"Smoke Gets In Your Eyes" supposedly cured the cancer.

"A medical doctor may be able to cure a cancer, but a quack can't," Candler said, "and a patient who goes to a quack turns himself over to the possibility of almost certain death, from the lack of proper diagnosis."

Leake said the identifying characteristics of the quack are many and varied. They almost invariably offer a "secret remedy," promise a sure cure, always make a snap diagnosis, then forcefully warn against consulting a licensed physician.

Meanwhile, Candler pointed out, questionable reducing drugs, and heavily advertised miracle cure-alls are hitting the market in increasing numbers. "One miracle cure-all—concentrated sea-water—if taken as advertised, one teaspoonful per day, is supposed to help cure arthritis, palsy, cancer, diabetes, Parkinson's disease, leukemia, multiple sclerosis, anemia, gray hair, and baldness.

One mail order campaign lauded the assets of "Bathe A Weigh." Flowery copy said "Bathe A Weigh your fat up to 30 lbs. by simply taking a daily bath."

"Such claims are ludicrous, but many consumers must sample each at least once, and their buying habits total millions of dollars each year," Candler said.

Assessor's Office To Serve L.G. March 16-17

A temporary branch of the County Assessor's office will be open in Lemon Grove for two days, March 16 and 17 at the Youth Center building, 3146 School Lane, according to John McQuilken, county assessor.

All exemption claims must be filed before May 1 and after March 6, McQuilken said. The Lemon Grove branch—and ten others throughout the county—will assist property owners in getting whatever exemptions they are entitled to.

More than 125,000 special forms have been mailed to property owners who may be entitled to veteran's exemption, church exemption, and special type properties including commercial, ranch, and dairy. Failure to receive a declaration form does not relieve the person from the necessity of filing an annual statement or claim for exemption.

Forms are now available at the Assessor's Office in the Civic Center for use by non-profit charity organizations desiring to apply for exemption under the California Welfare Exemption law.

The Assessor's Office, 10 Civic Center, San Diego, is open 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Permanent branch offices are maintained at 363 Broadway, Vista, and 248 West Main, El Cajon.

Cost of County Government Reported at $79.50 per Capita

SACRAMENTO — Per capita cost of county government in California was $79.50 in the 1959-60 fiscal year, State Controller Alan Cranston said today.

By far the largest portion of that amount — $42.42 — went for charities and corrections, principally aid to the aged, aid to needy children, and maintenance of county hospitals, Cranston said.

Other per capita expenditures by function were: General government $11.57; Roads and bridges 7.62; Protection to persons and property 7.16; Health and sanitation 2.67; Education 1.18; Recreation .92; Debt service .45; Miscellaneous 5.51. Cranston's annual report or county financial transactions disclosed total expenditures of $1,236,616,629, compared with $1,163,513,301 for the prior year. Total revenues were $1,261,574,546, up from a 1958-59 level of $1,169,369,777.

Cranston said the counties are becoming more and more self-reliant as revenue raisers. On the expenditure side, the dollar cost of charities and corrections was $659,887,523, or 53.3 per cent of the total expenditures. In 1953-54 the same item accounted for 59.5 per cent of the counties' overall costs.

Patience Is Virtue Drivers Need, Highway Patrol Reports

That patience should be among the attributes of a careful driver is emphasized by the number of accidents resulting from right of way violations, California Highway Patrol Commissioner Bradford M. Crittenden pointed out this week.

"Right of way violations were responsible for approximately one of every seven accidents in Patrol areas last year. They were the second leading accident cause."

"There are two primary reasons; impatience, which propels drivers into danger situations they ordinarily would avoid, and carelessness in judgment of such factors as the speed of oncoming vehicles or cross traffic," the commissioner said. "The driver who illegally usurps the right of way all ways endangers at least two persons, himself and the driver who, actually had a right to the road at that moment."

"Patience in making maneuvers which occasionally prescribe a few moments wait, such as left turns and entry onto busy streets, and careful judgment of movements which take your automobile through the normal path of another vehicle, pay a two-fold dividend," he said.

"You protect not only the other driver, but yourself, from serious injury or death."

Increase in Tours at Hearst San Simeon Castle Reported

Attendance at the Hearst San Simeon State Historical Monument was up over 50,000 in 1960 from 1959 along with gross revenue in 1960 of $538,694 as compared to $492,797 in 1959.

Because of an increased number of tours during the summer months, turnaways (those actually stopping at the ticket window, but not including those not entering the grounds because of road signs posted that the park was full) were reduced from 26,411 in 1959 to 13,785 in 1960.

The monument has tours available at almost any hour (9 a.m. to 3 p.m.) during the week in the winter months.

Visitors should find no difficulty gaining admission on weekdays until June, with a probable exception of the Easter vacation period.

Reserved tours are now available for individuals but no necessary on week days in the winter months. For reservations contact the Division of Beaches and Parks in Sacramento. Reserved tours are available up to 60 days in advance.

'Spirit' Sermon Topic at Church

Why spiritualization of thought is necessary to individual growth and happiness will be brought out in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Spirit" in all Christian Science church services Sunday.

Introducing the Lesson-Sermon, the Golden Text from John (4:24) declares, "God is a Spirit; and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth."

Paul asserts in his letter to the Philippians (3:3, 8, 12), "For we . . . worship God in the spirit, and have no confidence in the flesh. . . I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: . . . Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which I am apprehended of Christ Jesus."

FR. WILLIAM STACK

Mission Set At Catholic Church Here

The Rev. Father William Stack, C.P.P. S. noted Missionary of the Society of the Precious Blood, will conduct a week's parish Mission at St. John of the Cross Church in Lemon Grove, beginning Sunday, March 12.

Fr. Stack will preach at the 7, 8:30, 10, 11:30 a.m. and 6 p.m. Sunday masses and daily at 7:30 p.m. The daily masses will be at 6:30, 8:10, 11:15 a.m. and 6 p.m. The Rosary, sermon, and benediction will be every evening of the mission at 7:30.

Fr. Stack has had outstanding success in giving missions all over the United States, always attracting overflow crowds. His appointments at Sedalia, Mo., Kalida, Ohio, Cincinnati, O., Norfolk, Va., Flint, Mich., Cleveland, O. bore great fruit also. He is a vigorous and practical preacher, covering in his sermons major teachings and chief moral principles of the teachings of God.

A mission is a course of spiritual exercises conducted by specially trained missionaries. During these exercises, prayerful consideration is given to the great truths of eternity, to the duties and obligations of those who would be followers of Christ.

The object of the mission is to bring back souls to God - to help the weak, to raise the fallen, to convert the sinner - in a word, to strengthen all in virtue and to bring down upon all the blessings of God.

The conclusion to be drawn from the above, then in the Mission is a time during which God pours out on all who will, the abundance of His grace; a time we need to set ourselves right with God; a time we need to prepare for eternity; a time the like of which may never again be ours, "Behold," says the Savior, "I stand at the gate and knock." Will we open to receive Him? or, will we lock the door and bid Him go about His Way?

Reserve this time for God, for, "The Master is come and calleth for thee." — John X.1, 28. "Go out into the highways and the hedges and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled." — Luke XIV.23. The general public is invited to attend.

Bid Opening Set For Harritt Dam

Bids for the construction of Chet Harritt Dam will be opened at the March 20 meeting of the Helix Irrigation District board, Harry Griffen, chairman, said last week.

Directors accepted Ham Bros.' bid of $58,769.75 for a pipeline project. The bid, Griffen said, was $18,184.71 lower than the highest bid submitted. Work on the project is scheduled to get under way within two weeks and the entire project is expected to be completed in 900 days.

The board also adopted a resolution lifting the horsepower restrictions on motors used to power fishing boats on the district's Lake Murray reservoir.

The resolution requires that low speed operation be maintained at all times by those using the lake facilities in order to insure that utmost care be exercised in safeguarding lives and property, Griffen said.

Nutritionists tell us it would cost about 43 cents for products to duplicate the food elements found in a quart of milk.

The cross was an instrument of death. It was one of the means of execution used by the Romans. The Law of God demanded death for the lawbreaker. Therefore, if Christ was to redeem us He must die as a criminal. He was not a criminal, having never broken God's Law, but died in your place being you have broken God's Law.

Pioneer Rancher Recalls Early Day Lemon Groves

BY LEE CHILSON

"They pulled out the lemon trees and built houses." That's the way W. F. Denlinger, a pioneer lemon rancher here, explains the vanishing lemon groves of Lemon Grove.

Denlinger, a resident here since 1911, still has about two acres in lemons, but says, "I don't market them anymore. Just sell a few to people who stop by and let the rest fall off the trees."

STARTED IN 1923

But it wasn't always that way. Denlinger remembers in 1923, when he planted his first grove. "There were lemon groves everywhere you looked. Trees were flourishing along Grove street, Imperial avenue, south on Washington to Palm avenue and in the La Mesa and Spring Valley areas as well."

Most of the growers in those days, he said, shipped through the Lemon Grove packing plant—recently the victim of a fire that destroyed the old landmark.

During the lemon's heyday here, many growers shipped through the Chula Vista Citrus Assn. plant, torn down last year to make way for another shopping center. Denlinger was once a board member of the Chula Vista plant.

'GREENHORN'

"I was a greenhorn when I first started in the lemon business," Denlinger confessed. "I worked in a store here from 1911 until I started raising lemons and I'll never forget the night I came home from work and saw all these men with fire on their heads—and later I was a little embarrassed to learn that they didn't have fire on their heads at all—they were just fumigating lemon trees!"

Asked about how the lemon crop was actually harvested, the veteran grower explained it this way:

"In those days the grower cultivated, watered and pruned his trees. All the cultivating was by horse then, of course. Then, when it was time for the crop to be picked we just called on the packing plant. They sent pickers out and hauled away your crop. That's all there was to it."

WATER WAS PROBLEM

We also asked him about Southern California's big headache—water—and learned that the problem was almost as important then. "Growers were allowed to irrigate on certain days of the month only," he said, "if they didn't irrigate then—they just didn't." Then, he said, Colorado River water came to the Southland and "you could irrigate anytime you wanted to."

Land prices, we learned, were quite different in those early days, too. Denlinger said he remembers in the early 1900's when a ranch with a house was selling for as little as $1,500. "That was because there was so little water then," he explained.

But the lemon groves are disappearing—making way for more new homes and businesses—throughout the Southland, not just in this area.

A recent chamber of commerce survey revealed lemon acreage was down some 1200 acres from 1956 to 1960. A major reason for the sharp reduction, it was revealed, is the improved lemon juice being shipped from foreign countries. In 1954, the report shows, there were 442,301 lemon trees as compared to 369,319 in 1959. In 1954 there were 1,922 lemon ranches and by 1959 that figure had dropped to 1,424.

PRIDE AND JOY

But despite his many years as a lemon grower, Denlinger's pride and joy is a banana tree. It grows in the back yard of his home at 8256 Adams Ave., and currently bears five huge stalks of plump bananas. Are they edible? You bet they are. "We pick about five or six bananas just as they're getting ripe," Denlinger said, "and we've found they're very good."

Denlinger, who lives at the Adams avenue address with his wife, (who was president of the first PTA unit in Lemon Grove) also voices a little pride in his lush orange trees. He also raises geese and rabbits. What was once his 7½-acre lemon ranch has now been subdivided and he is selling lots.

The Denlingers have two sons, both Lemon Grove residents. Albert, who works at North Island, lives at 8215 Golden Ave., and Ernest, operator of Ernie's Septic Tank Co., a Lemon Grove firm, lives at 8240 Alton Dr.

PIONEER LEMON RANCHER—W. F. Denlinger, who started lemon ranching here in 1923, poses beside one of his remaining trees that once was part of a 7½-acre grove. One of the last growers of that era, Denlinger now sells his crop only to people who stop by his home at 8256 Adams Ave., lets the rest of the lemons fall off the trees. (Staff Photo).

New Courses For Summer School Told

The Grossmont Union High School District Board of Trustees approved the following new courses for the 1961-62 school year: commercial art, note taking, (summer school), typing-driver education combination, economics for college preparatory students, record keeping, small business management (summer school) business English first semester alternated with speech second semester, consumer economics, large group instruction in 12th grade English at Helix, Grossmont, Mt. Miguel and El Capitan, writer's workshop (summer school), 9th grade exploratory course in electronics at El Capitan and El Cajon, Spanish A & B (non college), S.M.S.G. 9th grade algebra at all schools, S.M.S.G. 10th grade geometry at all schools, senior applied math, P.S.S.C. science, earth science on 11th and 12th grade levels at Helix, physical science for non-college at Mt. Miguel, field biology at Grossmont (summer school), history seminar and history of science (summer school).

These courses had been recommended by faculty committees and reviewed by the administrative council and by John T. Warburton, assistant superintendent. These courses are designed to further improve the offerings available to students.

The board also approved a guidance application which will provide for research into success and failure of students of equal background, attempting to analyze reasons for those cases in which failure results.

Also approved was the standard calendar adopted by the county and other school districts calling for 179 days of school during 1961-62. However, the board indicated that school would be held on several holidays to provide for better observance of the holiday and to extend the educational opportunity of students if a bill authorizing this is passed by the legislature. School will begin on Sept. 11 and end June 15 next year.

Extension of Leland Street Gains Okay

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—Extension of Leland street northward from the west extension of Spring Valley manor to Jamacha road, La Presa, was approved Friday by the County Planning Commission.

The developer, Jesse C. Eperson, will be required to grant the county enough right-of-way to provide 30 feet on each side of the centerline of Leland street and move utilities from the right-of-way, under conditions of the commission's action.

Against County Pinball Owners File Suit

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — The owners of pinball machines recently confiscated in raids by the sheriff's office on taverns in Chula Vista and Lemon Grove on Friday filed suit in Superior Court against Sheriff Bert Strand.

Plaintiff are H. W. and R. A. Patrick, doing business as A. E. Peterson Co. and Service Novelty Co. They state they are the owners of the machines taken into custody by sheriff's deputies on Feb. 7.

Their suit is to restrain Sheriff Strand from destroying the pinball equipment. Destruction of the machines in 30 days has been indicated in the sheriff's office announcement of its action.

The suits, filed by John Butler, attorney for the plaintiffs, asks the court to take four steps: to rule that the machines are not gambling machines but are instead for tests of skill; grant an injunction against their seizure by the sheriff's deputies; restrain the sheriff from destroying the machines, and grant the plaintiffs the cost of their suit and whatever damages and relief is deemed fair.

The places raided, the suit shows, were Tommy's Club, 1070 National ave., Vince's Club, 1129 National ave., and South Bay Club, 1008 Broadway, all three being in Chula Vista. The machines in these places, the action states, were leased from the A. E. Peterson Co.

Machines leased from the Service Novelty Co., the suit says, were taken from the Ramble Inn, 202 Main st., Chula Vista, and Sam's Place, 1008 Broadway, Lemon Grove.

Vandals Destroy Fire Equipment At School in LG

Vandals broke the glass on three wall containers, took out large pressure-type fire extinguishers, and released the pressure from them at the Casa de Oro Elementary School, sheriff's officers reported this week.

Deputies answered a report on youngsters throwing stones at cars at the school and found two juveniles, 14 and 16 years of age, with the extinguishers. Both boys denied throwing stones.

Eric Ellison, 2110 McKnight St., Lemon Grove, issued the complaint on the stone throwing after his car was struck when he passed the school, he said.

County Retains Funds For Welfare Program

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—The county is going to be able to hang onto the $6,000,000 it gets from state and federal sources for the local aid to needy children program, it was indicated Tuesday after the close of a hearing before the State Board of Social Welfare.

The hearing, which began at 8:30 a.m. at the County Education Center, and went right through the luncheon hour, ended with a resolution by the board chairman, praising the county's efforts to make its program legal and pointing out what still has to be accomplished.

The hearing was called due to a "conservative policy" adopted last year by the Board of Supervisors. The policy was the result of sharp criticism of the administration of the county welfare department, made principally by District Attorney James Don Keller and Municipal Court Judge Huntington P. Bledsoe.

NOT PRESENT

Neither Keller or Bledsoe attended the Tuesday hearing. The district attorney's office was represented by Paul Maracini, assistant to Joseph D'Addario, head of the family support division. D'Addario, himself an object of controversy, was not present. Board members during the hearing referred to Judge Bledsoe by name for his part in formulation of the county's policy.

The resolution adopted by the welfare board complimented the County Board of Supervisors and the county officials concerned for "making substantial progress" toward conforming with state law. It cited the withdrawal on Jan. 17 of the county's previous illegal plan, which allowed the district attorney's office more control over aid to needy children relief than state and federal law allowed.

ASK FOR REPORT

But, while progress has been made, the state board also pointed out that not all the effects of the previous policy have been undone. It asked for a report in 30 days on the status of the cases affected by the previous plan, with a statement of the corrective action being taken.

A meeting of state and county welfare staffs was proposed to reach agreement on the county policy in regard to homes where more than two illegitimate children live or where there is a male resident not related to the recipient of the aid to needy children funds.

Present policy of the county is to refer the illegitimate children cases to the probation department and to cut off aid where there is an unrelated male living with the recipient.

BOARD ON RECORD

The state board went definitely on record that its policy is that relief is to be administered by the welfare department and that the district attorney's function is only to prosecute dishonesty.

The state's investigation of San Diego's practices was submitted to the board by C. A. Herbage, deputy director.

Henry A. Dietz, county counsel for San Diego, spent about two hours explaining the legality of the county's present policy. It was Dietz who has worked with state lawyers and welfare staff members seeking to make the county practices conform to the Board of Supervisors' "conservative policy" and the state's insistence on a liberal interpretation.

Other local officials who testified, in addition to Maracini, from the district attorney's office, were Homer E. Detrich, director of public welfare, and Fred J. Morey, assistant chief administrative officer.

WORKING PROGRAM

Morey drew up the plan first opposed by the state board, in an attempt to make a workable program that would meet the demands of Keller and Bledsoe. Morey has also worked with Dietz on the modifications needed to meet state protests.

Duane Carnes, deputy county counsel, was also present throughout the hearings, and Supervisor Robert C. Dent, was present for part of the early session, but left in time to attend the regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors.

Locals Invited to Welfare Meetings

Mrs. Thelma Lewis, president of the Spring Valley Welfare, expresses her appreciation to the people of the area for their continued interest in the welfare. She extends a special invitation to the people of the South Spring Valley area to attend the welfare meetings, the third Friday of each month, at 1:30 p.m. in the Friends Community Church, Kenwood and Bancroft Dr., Spring Valley. The next meeting is scheduled for March 17. More than 20 persons attended the February meeting.

Hegland Hails Passage Of New Narcotics Laws

Assemblyman Sheridan N. Hegland, La Mesa, this week hailed passage of legislation providing stiffer penalties for narcotic peddlers as "one of the greatest steps to the alleviation of crime in California."

Hegland was a co-author of the legislation which passed the lower house by a large majority.

Under the legislation, if it becomes law, narcotics penalties for first conviction of possession would be two to ten years, second offense five to 20 years, and third and subsequent offense 15 years to life.

Stiff penalties were provided for offenders proving narcotics to minors. The penalties would be ten years to life, with no parole until after five years were served, for first offense; 10 years to life, with parole only after ten years, for second offense; 15 years to life, with 15 years required to serve before parole, for third and subsequent offenders.

"The state of Ohio passed similar legislation several years ago," Hegland said, "and the narcotics traffic in that state has decreased immeasurably since that time."

Hegland said California stands second in the nation in the number of narcotic drug addicts, a record exceeded only by New York.

The legislation is now pending in the State Senate for hearing and passage before going to the Governor for his signature.

Street Extension Granted Despite Owner's Protest

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — An argument over whether Bobby lane in Spring Valley should be extended to meet a possible future extension of Challenge boulevard enlivened a hearing Friday of the County Planning Commission.

The planners approved the opening of portions of two lots, reserved for future streets, in George E. Eckel's Avocado Estates Unit No. 1, on condition that Eckel grant the county sufficient right-of-way to extend Bobby lane south to join the easterly extension of Challenge, together with a temporary turning circle at the south end.

They took this action over the objections of the developer, who said "I can see no good reason for continuing this road to Challenge. There is no reason to think it will ever be developed."

In another action, Eckel was given a year's extension of time until March 11, 1962, to file a final map of his Avocado Estates Unit 2, consisting of 30 lots in the Hillsdale section.

Approval of the tentative map of Unit 2 was amended by the commission to require the subdivider to provide a minimum water supply pipe size of six inches diameter, except that four-inch pipe may be allowed in cul-de-sac streets where fire flow is unnecessary and length of the main does not exceed 400 feet.

Woman Reports Vacuum Theft

Mrs. Lora Effie Bates of 3530 James Circle, Spring Valley, reported to sheriff's officers this week the theft of a vacuum cleaner from her home sometime over the weekend.

She told Deputy Sheriff R. Bryan that she was away for the weekend, came home Sunday and discovered the cleaner was gone. She said she found footprints in the area of a dining room window which had been open. The drapes were parted, she said, and dust on the window sill was disturbed, indicating someone may have entered the house through the window.

Cost of the cleaner is estimated at about $185.

Short Shots

Glancing at the various leagues in San Diego County, here are the champions in their respective leagues. Hoover claimed the Eastern League of the City Schools with a 7-1 loop record and a 21-3 overall tally. Point Loma's Pointers topped the Western League with a 7-1 finish. Hilltop ran away with the Metro League Northern Division boasting a 12-1 loop standing, and a 19-5 overall mark. Four of the Hilltoppers five men on the team finished in the top 15 scorers in both divisions of the Metro League. Grossmont and Chula Vista, both with 8-5 records share the Southern Division title, with Grossmont tabbed the number 1 team for the C. I.F. San Diego Section Play-offs. San Dieguito's frisky Mustangs romped to the Avocado League Championship with 10 triumphs in league play, and a 22-1 record for overall games played this season. Rounding out the area teams is Ramona of the Southern League. The barking Bulldogs chalked up 10 straight league victories and have met defeat only once this season while rolling to 20 victories. Granite Hills of the Metro Northern Division, playing in their first year of operation could not find the victory column in their basket, ball games and finished their first season with an 0-19 record. The Roman Eagles have quite a bit of room for improvement next year. With the Grossmont District trustees naming the new school on Sweetwater Springs boulevard, Monte Vista, what will the nickname be????

Pleasure Boat Owners Passing Up Gas Tax Refunds from State

SACRAMENTO — A good many of California's pleasure boat owners still are passing up gasoline tax refunds they have coming.

This word came today from State Controller Alan Cranston, who reminded boaters that the six-cent state tax on a gallon of gasoline is refundable if the fuel is used for boating. This is in line with the state policy of refunding taxes paid on gasoline used for other than travel on streets and highways.

"Thousands of boat owners apparently are not cognizant of their right to a refund," Cranston said.

He noted that the state refunded $176,766 to 7,400 pleasure boaters last year. The number of boaters entitled to refunds is thought to be considerably greater.

Cranston warned that certain elementary records must be kept. State law requires that a refund claim be supported by original invoices showing the name of the person who purchased and used the fuel. Thus, an invoice made out to "cash" is unacceptable. The invoice also must show the date of the purchase, the name and address of the seller, the amount and kind of fuel purchased and the cost of the fuel including taxes.

Original credit card invoices suffice to meet the legal requirement, Cranston said.

Claims can be submitted any time within 13 months after the purchase of the fuel. Return forms with detailed instructions can be obtained by writing to the Controller's Division of Tax Collection and Refunds, P. O. Box 1019, Sacramento 5.

Little Leaguers Changing Field

The Valley De Oro Little League has changed playing fields. They will be playing this season at the Spring Valley Junior High School grounds, instead of the Bancroft School grounds, according to a report this week from Mrs. Jean Crawford, publicity chairman for the League.

Play Tournament To Feature Area High Schoolers

Drama students and coaches of the Grossmont Union High School District will participate in a district one act play tournament March 11 at El Cajon Valley High School. Because of the growth of the District and the addition of the sixth high school, plays will be scheduled both afternoon and evening this year. Position on the program is determined by chance.

El Cajon Valley High School drama coach, Keith Richard, has announced that his department will do a play called "The Elevator," a suspense piece in which one character holds a group of people trapped in an elevator.

Robert Sanders, Mt. Miguel coach, will present his students in a cutting from the three act play "Lo and Behold," a modern comedy concerning this world and the next. Both Helix and Granite Hills High Schools hold tournaments at their schools to determine their entries, and results are not yet available, according to Helix coach Edward Frank, and Granite Hills coach, Gordon Teaby. Grossmont and El Capitan have not announced their entries. Richard Dunlop is the Grossmont coach and Kathleen Lund is the El Cap coach.

In 1960, judging was done by college instructors from schools in the San Diego area. This year, local drama coaches will judge, since the tournament is set for both afternoon and evening.

In the 1960 tournament Mt. Miguel placed second with a cutting from "The Patsy."

Condemnation Suit Filed in La Presa

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A condemnation suit was filed Tuesday in Superior Court to obtain land for a drainage channel needed as part of the plan for improvement of Jamacha boulevard, east of Sweetwater road, La Presa.

Defendants in the suit are Mr. and Mrs. Emil Sedel Caldwell. The suit was filed by the county counsel's office, on behalf of the County Board of Supervisors.

Although only a narrow strip is required for the drainage channel, the piece of land is long enough to make the area required more than an acre, it was stated at the county counsel's office.

DROP CONTEST TO EL CAJON

Matador Cagers Stop El Capitan

By Bill Ott Jr.

Mt. Miguel's off-and-on Matador cagers were on last Tuesday night, but off Friday night when the chips were down. The Matador quintet rolled by El Capitan Tuesday night in the Miguel gym, 60-43, but Friday night's game was a different chapter as the Spring Valley five fell to El Cajon, 63-56, on the Granite Hills planks.

A victory Friday night would have put the Matadors in a three way tie for first place in the Metro League Southern Division chase, but the loss dropped the Miguel crew to a second place tie with Sweetwater, both teams being one game behind co-champions Grossmont and Chula Vista.

No Party

Hosting the Vaqueros of El Capitan on the home boards in Tuesday's clash was no party the first half. The fighting Vaqueros of the Northern Division jumped off to a 14-10 first quarter lead, but the Matadors bounced back with 14 points in the second stanza while holding the visitors to 7, and moving out in front at the half-time intermission, 24-21.

In third quarter action the Miguelers again outscored their opponents, 11-8 for a 35-29 margin going into the final period of play. Fourth quarter action saw the mighty Matadors tally 25 points while holding the Vaqueros to 14 for the 60-43 finish.

Center Bob Engberg mashed 18 points for the winner's, and teammate Bill Sage whipped in 13 in leading the Miguel cagers to their seventh Metro loop triumph. El Cap's Brian Ross took game scoring honors with 20 points, helping him claim the Metro League scoring championship for the 1961 season.

Slow First Half

Friday night's fray again found the Matadors off to a slow first half. The Braves of El Cajon moved out in front 11-10 going into the second quarter, and built-up a 22-19 halftime score. In the third period the Matadors were again outscored, 14-12 by the fired-up Braves, and fell behind going into the final chapter, 36-31.

El Cajon began to roll in the final quarter as did the Matadors, but again the visitors from Spring Valley fell short in the scoring column, 27-25 for the 63-56 final tally.

Top Scoring

Bob Hoss and Jerry Hancock paced the Braves' offensive attack with 21 and 18 points respectively. Leading scorers for the Miguel quintet were Bob Engberg with 18 points and Bill Sage with 15.

The loss eliminated the Mt. Miguel hoopmen from C.I.F. Play-off competition, but if the school would have had an enrollment of less than 1,500 students in the top three grades they probably would have been given an "at large" berth in the Class A play-offs as the football team did in the fall.

Coach Dick Ridgway's charges finished the best season for a Matador hoop team with a 7-6 league slate, and a 9-11 overall effort.

Scores by quarters:

Mt. Miguel	10	14	11	25-60
El Capitan	14	7	8	14-43
El Cajon	11	11	14	27-63
Mt. Miguel	10	9	12	25-56

Science Fair Judging Scheduled for Today

Judging in the Mt. Miguel High School Science Fair is scheduled this afternoon with five or six entries expected to move into the Greater San Diego Science Fair next month, school officials said today.

Sunbury Completes Course in Typing

1ST CAV. DIV., KOREA (AHTNC)—Army Pvt. Robert E. Sunbury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin E. Sunbury, 3380 S. Bonita, Spring Valley, recently completed a four-week typing course conducted by the 1st Cavalry Division in Korea.

The 1st is the only U. S. division presently manning a front line in Korea.

Sunbury, a clerk-typist in the division's 15th Administration Company, entered the Army in August 1960, completed basic training at Fort Ord, Calif., and arrived overseas in January 1961.

The 19-year-old soldier is a 1960 graduate of Mt. Miguel High School.

Avocado Growers To Meet March 25

The Avocado Growers' Institute will be Saturday, March 25, at the Mae Ellis Cafeteria, on Hill avenue, in Fallbrook, reports University of California Farm Advisor Don Gustafson. The meeting will begin at 9:15 a.m. and end at noon.

Speakers from private and public groups who have been invited to participate in this year's program will discuss marketing and cultural and research work with avocados. Papers to be presented will include reports on the current status of the State marketing order, buying avocados in today's market, irrigation practices with Colorado River water, pests of avocado and their natural enemies, and the role of fertilization in avocado production.

Because of the great interest in the marketing order for advertising and promoting avocados, Mr. Frank Bennett, Chief of the Bureau of Markets, State Department of Agriculture, Sacramento, will present the latest information on this marketing order. This meeting will be open to the public, and they are cordially invited to attend.

'Youth of the World' is Topic for PTA Meeting

'Youth of the World' will be the topic at Helix High School Parent-Teacher meeting at 7:30 p.m. today.

Mrs. Dwight Putnam, district representative for the American Field Service, will introduce three of the area's foreign exchange students; from Helix High, Dietmar Schudlich, Hannover, Germany; from Mt. Miguel High, Catherine Barri, Paris, France; from Carlsbad High, Tone Sandea, Sandvika, Norway.

The students will share their year's experience in our country and parents will have an opportunity to ask questions during an informal discussion period.

Daniel Lewis, instrumental director, will present a string en-

Switch to Seven Digit Phone Numbers Indicated

A gradual increase in the swing to seven-figure phone numbers in California, and across the country, was indicated today by The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company.

"We're running out of prefix names faster than anticipated," the company reported. "And we need more usable combinations on the dial than the dwindling supply of two-letter prefixes can provide."

Under the new All-Number Calling plan—ANC, for short—figures will replace letters in phone numbers and prefix names will disappear.

The switch to ANC will open up more calling combinations and provide enough numbers to take care of future growth in the nation's telephone system, the company said.

Key word pointed to in that statement is "growth"—growth in the number of telephones and in the expansion of Direct Distance Dialing (DDD), the system that lets telephone users dial their own long distance calls. Emphasizing the rate of growth the company said the nation now has better than 70,000,000 telephones and may top the 140,000,000 mark by 1975.

Applications for entry in the annual event went out Monday, were scheduled to be returned yesterday. From 10 to 12 entries were expected.

The exhibits will be on display in the school's science department today and during a PTA meeting tonight.

Judges are Robert F. Bailey and Dr. Lionell Joseph, who will judge the physical science entries, and Dr. Avery Gallup and Dr. Frank Ratty. The latter will judge the life sciences. All are from San Diego State College.

Students are required to take on a project for the year, and those students who wish to enter their projects in the science fair are invited to participate.

"We feel the science fair is a means to promote individual activity in the sciences," Clifford Phillips, head of the Mt. Miguel science department, said. "Although we try to get students interested in work here in the classroom, the project is completed outside of class."

All work on each exhibit must be done by the students and a project notebook, containing a resume and notes must be on display with the exhibit. Exhibitors will be standing by their displays during the judging to answer questions.

Here's how the exhibits will be judged:

Thirty points will go for originality, ingenious use of materials and purposefulness. An other 30 points will be awarded for scientific thought, organization, accurate observations, and understanding of scientific facts.

Ten points will be awarded each for thoroughness, skill clarity, and dramatic value.

Special awards will be given first and second place winners in all categories. A sweepstakes award will go to the most outstanding exhibit at the fair.

Winners at Mt. Miguel will submit their exhibits in the Greater San Diego Science Fair, scheduled April 15 in the Federal Building at Balboa Park. Some 200 to 300 exhibits are expected for the event from schools throughout the San Diego County area.

Howard Weisbrod is committee coordinator for the San Diego event.

James D. Risner Recent Graduate

Dr. Nicholl Back From Optic Confab

Dr. Calvin K. Nicholl, Lemon Grove optometrist and past president of the San Diego County Optometric Society, has returned from the 54th Annual Congress of the California Optometric Assn. which was held in San Francisco at the Jack Tar Hotel, concluding with an installation banquet and dance Saturday night.

He reports that there were nearly 1,000 registrants at the four-day series of workshops, education and business sessions, and was the biggest annual meeting in the statewide organization's history.

Typhoid Carriers Total 11 in Area

The names of nine women and two men are on the list of known typhoid carriers in San Diego County, according to a recent report from the San Diego Dept. of Public Health. The eleventh name was added in February.

Most of the men and women who are typhoid carriers were never aware they had typhoid fever, the report stated. It is possible to have typhoid fever without becoming ill. Several of the persons who are typhoid carriers in this county recall nursing relatives who had typhoid fever.

Persons found to be typhoid carriers are visited twice a year by the Dept. of Public Health through the surveillance program. They are also asked to sign a carrier agreement, a basic step to prevent their spreading the disease to others.

They agree not to prepare or serve food for the public, not to handle milk products or mill utensils, to wash their hands thoroughly before preparing food for their family.

THANKS PAPER EDITOR:

The United Fund of San Diego County last week announced allocation of the $2,861,500 raised in the 1960-61 campaign on behalf of 97 of our county's vital health, welfare, and social service agencies.

Unfortunately, this provides these important agencies with only 84 per cent of their base budgets, and this at a time when there is an ever-increasing need for the services and programs they offer to our fellow-citizens. There are many factors responsible for this, chief among them the economic condition. The United Fund will continue, without general publicity, certain additional efforts to raise more money for our agencies. However, the purpose of this letter is neither to describe our problems nor our plans.

If we have had disappointments in this campaign, we have also had successes. One, we believe, was our public relations and publicity effort.

If there were persons and organizations who did not do their part, then there were also persons and organizations who did much more than their part. Certainly one of these was your newspaper. This outstanding support was one of the highlights of the countywide campaign.

Therefore, I am writing to express my gratitude for this invaluable help you gave to the United Fund and the agencies it supports. I also thank you on behalf of the thousands of men, women, and children in our county who daily make use of the programs and services provided by these agencies.

Very truly yours,
Cloys J. Frandell, Chairman
Public Relations Committee

Monte Vista Selected as Name of New High School

A study of the feasibility of employment by the Grossmont District of educable mentally retarded students who have completed the training program at Grossmont High School was approved by the board last week.

The students are receiving training in gardening, cafeteria work, and upon completion of the educational and work experience program it was felt that some of these students would be ready for full time employment. The study will attempt to determine if the work production of EMR students can be demonstrated so that other potential employers could engage in a similar project.

The board authorized development of plans for use of fire resistant materials in construction of gyms proposed for Hill and El Cajon Valley High Schools. It was pointed out that either reinforced concrete or concrete block walls would permit a 50 per cent increase in seating capacity without increase in the size of the gym and with only a nominal increase in cost. "Seating capacity will be increased from 999 to the neighborhood of 1,500," said Harold G. Hughes, associate superintendent.

The board chose the name Monte Vista for the new high school on Sweetwater Springs boulevard. The board had referred the selection of a name for the new school to the students who will form the student body next fall from a splitting of the Mt. Miguel High School enrollment. Four names had been submitted to the student body with the first two choices to be referred back to the Board. The student vote showed El Dorado in the lead over second choice Monte Vista by almost 2-1. However, the board decided that Monte Vista was a better name because of the district's policy which suggests geographical - historical names for the school.

Monte Vista means mountain view which is clearly appropriate because of the prominent San Miguel Mountain which dominates the landscape from the school site. In addition, the neighboring area to the east is a part of the well known Monte Vista Ranch.

Move Would Extend FHA Home Loans to 40 Years

Passage by the California Assembly of a resolution calling upon the National Congress to enact legislation extending from 30 to 40 years the terms of F.H.A. home loans was hailed this week as a move in the direction of stimulating the national economy.

Assemblyman Wm. A. Munnell, (D-Montebello) Assembly majority leader and Democratic state central committee chairman for Southern California, who introduced the resolution, declared that it is designed to bring new homeowners into the market and to stimulate the building industry.

"The resolution passed the Assembly with only five dissenting votes cast by a hard core group of ultra-conservative Republicans," Munnell said.

He predicted that a companion resolution introduced in the state Senate by Senator Randolph Collier, (D-Yreka) will pass by an equally decisive vote.

"The effect of this legislation, if passed by the national Congress, will be to reduce monthly payments and thus make it possible for many thousands of people to enter an eased market for homes," Munnell explained.

Parley Called by State Senator To Discuss Unemployment Relief

A conference called by Senator Hugo Fisher (D-San Diego) in cooperation with other State Senators to consider mounting unemployment problems in California was held at recently at the State Capitol.

Fisher said that the first session was held in order that members of the conference could receive a full briefing on the employment picture in California and have some idea of what the various departments were undertaking to cope with the problem.

Dr. Stanley Crook, Deputy Director of Economic Development Agency, outlined a program used in other states for attracting new industry termed the "Pennsylvania Plan."

This program consists of an authority through which private banking interests, the State and local communities arrange long-term, low-interest loans for expanding or newly established manufacturing firms.

Director Irving Perluss, Director of the Department of Employment said that he expected the unemployment situation in California to "worsen before it gets better." He reported that the most seriously affected ethnic group were negroes and the most seriously affected industrial group are those connected with the construction industry.

Perluss reported that congressional leaders from California had told him on a recent trip to Washington that the "fear of a possessory interest tax might be affecting the industrial development of California."

The Department of Public Works, at the request of Governor Brown, has stepped up the letting of contracts for public works projects in the more depressed areas of the State. Director Bradford stated that there are a hundred million dollars in projects with plans already completed which could be put into action immediately.

PUBLIC NOTICE-- ITS MANY USES

Copyright 1960
By James E. Pollard

Here is another series of articles on legal advertising. The first few will deal with background of legal notices. Later, specific legal notices will be discussed here.

WHAT IS A NEWSPAPER?

(No. 3 in a Series)
There are times when what looks like a newspaper may not qualify as such for legal purposes. In many places there are what are known as "shoppers" or "throwaways." They contain more or less news, they serve a purpose, but their primary purpose is advertising.

Such publications are useful and many of them have been in existence for years. Some of them make a fine appearance. But it is significant that they cannot qualify for second class entry under the postal laws. This is because they do not come within the definition of a bona fide newspaper under the regulations.

Then again there are special interest newspapers which, within their limits, also serve useful purposes. These may be fraternal or religious in nature or may have to do with a specific trade, business, industry or profession.

But in the very great majority of cases the thousands of state laws governing public notices, or legal advertising, specify the use of bona fide newspapers of paid general circulation in the community for such purposes. This is because such newspapers usually give maximum coverage, circulate throughout the community, their main purpose is to publish editorial and news matter, and their paid circulations are undeniable proof of their merit, their influence and their being wanted in the community.

LG Woman Named By Optic Unit

A Lemon Grove woman was honored last week at the 25th Annual Congress of the Woman's Auxiliary to the California Optometric Assn. which met in San Francisco Feb. 15-18.

Mrs. Nicholl is past president of the San Diego County Woman's Auxiliary and is currently scholarship chairman. She is past president of the Business Women's League of Lemon Grove and current president of the Lemon Grove Lioness Club.

'EXASPERATION' VOICED

Publishers Score Split Lot Issue; Rap Miller

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—Exasperation was voiced Thursday by officials of the county's newspapers at the monthly meeting of the local unit of the California Newspaper Publishers Assn.

The group had invited Dr. Willis H. Miller, county planning director, to talk on the controversial lot-split ordinance due to go into effect March 6.

Miller attacked the opponents of the ordinance, who are seeking to get petitions for a repeal of the law, for talking "balderdash." He called the petitions said against the ordinance "simple, straight forward misrepresentation."

The county official enumerated what he called the incorrect statements. Then he asked for questions, and the newspapermen took turns asking for explanations of the ordinance and of other county operations outside the split lot problem.

Wilbur Mackey, of the Fallbrook Enterprise, president of the local CNPA unit, called the road department worse than the planning department in its complicated operations. Only Max Goodwin, editor and publisher of the Lemon Grove Review and the Spring Valley Bulletin, had a kind word for the ordinance.

W. Ray Coyle, president of Bay Cities Publishing Co., publisher of three newspapers in the South Bay area, told Mackey that the answer for his problem and that of others in the same predicament is "to incorporate and get Miller out of your hair."

Miller defended the split lot ordinance and told Mackey, who said he had signed a petition asking for the repeal of the ordinance or a referendum on it, that he was "shocked to hear it."

Raymond (Jim) Wayman Fallbrook real estate man who was present as a guest, said 29,000 others had signed the petitions, and Miller answered that they had done so because they were "misled."

Miller also asked how many of the newspaper officials had called him recently to ask him about any questions that were bothering them in their own communities.

$40,000 Win Won't Alter Routine Of Lucky Spring Valley Family

(The following article on 5-10 winner Tony Gonzales, 39, a tool maker at Rohr Aircraft Corp. in Chula Vista, and a resident of Spring Valley, was written by Sam Weston and appears in the current issue of the Rohr Aircraft magazine.—Ed.)

If you won $40,713, what would YOU do?

"No, I am not quitting my job. Our family does not expect to change our pattern of living. We have a nice home in Spring Valley. We've put a lot in it and it's the way we want it. We buy nothing we do not need."

So says Tony Gonzales, 39, tool maker at Rohr's Chula Vista plant who, with his brother, Alfred, employed by a South Bay dairy, separately picked all six winners correctly in the 5-10 handicapping contest, to net each more than $40,000 at Caliente Race Track, Feb. 12.

And his wife, Gwendolyn, and their two children, Ronald, 17, junior at Mt. Miguel High School, and Sheryl, 12, staunchly agree.

CHECK ON RANCH

The Tony Gonzaleses will leave on vacation next week to visit relatives in Hanford, Calif., and look after business interests on our 600-acre family ranch—just as we planned to do many months ago, and did last year at this time.

"A win like that, obviously puts a man in good shape," Tony says seriously, "but it just doesn't mean Easy Street or that a man should forget his other duties at work or at home. Besides, there are the taxes. We're viewing this very realistically."

About the present extent they'll utilize their winnings, the brothers agree, is to install conference phones in their two homes. "We spend about two, three hours several evenings a week discussing the weekend card. Your arm gets awful numb holding the phone that long," he grins.

Tony, who has been at Rohr three years, two of them serving as union shop committee-man for his department, has been going to the races for about six months.

WE ENJOY THEM

"We just enjoy them," he says simply. Even daughter Cheryl joins in the fun. Currently she's at the stage of having a "crush" or two on favorite jockeys. "That's not good for one's betting judg-

TONY GONZALES, 39, tool maker at Rohr's Chula Vista plant who, with his brother, Alfred, employed by a South Bay dairy, separately picked all six winners correctly in the 5-10 handicapping contest, to net each more than $40,000 at Caliente Race Track, Feb. 12.

Tony has a set system for his weekly betting "fund." Fridays he cashes his paycheck and immediately pays all bills for the week. Saturdays he and Mrs. Gonzales sit down and set aside the money they know they will need to run the household, meet other expected obligations, savings. The rest is recreation money. Tony again divides that: so much for gasoline, meals, cigarettes—that goes into his pocket. The other pocket's for betting.

And, with careful study and shrewd selections, it's been a lucky "pocket." "I've only come home flat twice," he says. The 5-10 win peaked the luck.

"Calculated investment," he insists. He's dead set against gambling for gambling's sake. He's known too many men who cleaned themselves out, bet away savings, family happiness. "We will not allow ourselves to go into debt for this or any other reason."

Track officials were amazed when two brothers appeared to claim the loot. So was Tony when he was photographed in the clubhouse holding armloads of 100 and 1000-dollar bills. "Publicity," he said. "They paid by check, actually."

NATIVE CALIFORNIAN

Gonzales is a native Californian—"the name is Portuguese; my mother and dad were raised in Madeira but married in the U.S." Tony was born in Oakland, lived in Stockton briefly where his family had an asparagus farm, then for 21 years in Hanford in the Valley, first helping his dad, then following his death, his brothers and sister, raising alfalfa on their 600-acre place. Prior to joining Rohr, he worked at Ryan and Solar in San Diego. He has been in the South Bay area since 1951, living in National City, and for the past two years in their new home in Spring Valley Estates.

"She's a beauty," he says proudly. "We've put in a lot of improvements—fence, flowerbeds, barbecue pit; I'll bet I've laid 4000 brick in the garden and walk edging alone."

Characteristically, he bought the brick two or three hundred at a time—"as each paycheck covered them."

Tony accomplished his win on a $16 ticket. He had $20 in his "betting pocket" at the time.

And his plans now that the Big Win's in? "Bank it," he says tersely. "And watch it!"

DeMolay Award Fallout Shelter Construction To Dick Yokley Changes Submitted to State

Dick Yokley, 18, a student at San Diego Junior College and the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Yokley of 7897 Sanford, Lemon Grove, has been awarded the Representative DeMolay award—the highest self-achievement award a DeMolay can earn.

Yokley has been a member of the Lemon Grove DeMolay chapter for two years. He graduated from Mt. Miguel High School last year.

Announcement of the award came this week from H. C. Bergstresser, international registrar of representative DeMolays, with headquarters in Kansas City, Mo.

No date has been set for the formal presentation.

The Representative DeMolay award stamps the DeMolay member as being outstanding in the organization and elsewhere and signifies that the recipient has already established a list of accomplishments, knowledge and skills that will assist him in whatever he chooses to do in the world.

Two constitutional amendments regarding the construction of fallout shelters have been submitted to the state legislature, according to word received from the County Civil Defense office at Gillespie Field.

Assemblyman Sheridan Hegland (D-La Mesa) is listed as co-author of both of the amendments while Jack Schrade (R-El Cajon) is listed as co-author of one.

Amendment No. 2 would permit county boards of supervisors to grant exemption from taxation any property used or usable as a fallout or bomb shelter in an amount not to exceed the cost actually incurred in constructing or converting it.

The amendment would require that annual inspections be made by the county and that the owner would agree to accommodate as many persons in the shelter in an emergency as the county determines the capacity of the shelter to be.

Amendment No. 5 permits boards of supervisors to exempt from taxation within the county, bomb or fallout shelters that meet specifications the California Disaster Office shall prescribe or provide according to law.

(A contract has been awarded to Lauren Bolton of Fallbrook, for the construction of a prototype shelter at the S. R. Lash home in that community. The family-type shelter will accommodate six persons.)

Cornet Reports Sales Increase

Sales figures released today by Joe Cornet Sr., chairman of the board of Cornet Stores, indicate a record sales year for 1961 totaled $1,160,035.47, an increase of 18.73 per cent over the January 1960 total of $977,051.09. Mr. Cornet also pointed out that the chain operated a total of 140 stores in the first month of this year, compared to 125 last year. According to Cornet, all signs indicate a record sales year for 1961, with corporate planning including the addition of several new stores to the present 140, located in the eight Western states, including Hawaii. Cornet stores are located in Lemon Grove and Spring Valley.

Foundation Scholarship Deadline Set April 1

San Diego County students seeking March of Dimes - National Foundation health scholarships must file applications by April 2 Arthur Hunt, chairman of the organization's county chapter, announced this week.

More than 500 scholarships will be offered nationally for training in medicine, physical therapy, occupational therapy and medical social work, Hunt said. Last year three San Diego youths were given scholarships in medicine, nursing and physical therapy. Each scholarship amounts to $500 a year for four years, for a total of $2,000.

Graduating high school students planning to enter college in September, 1961, may apply for scholarships in nursing, physical therapy or occupational therapy.

Sophomores ready to enter the junior year in college who plan to continue the graduate study necessary to qualify as medical social workers are eligible for the medical social work scholarships.

Undergraduate students who have been accepted for the first year in medical school beginning in 1961, may apply for the scholarships in medicine.

Application blanks may be obtained from high school principals or counselors; the San

Ground Clearance In Vehicle Code For Car Outlined

A little-publicized reason for existence of the vehicle code section which sets minimum ground clearance limits for passenger vehicles was emphasized in a statement this week by Capt. R. Gausche, commander of the San Diego Area, California Highway Patrol.

"The life of a child could very well hinge on this law," he captain pointed out.

"Suppose you are proceeding at lawful speed through a residential area when a child dashes in front of your car. It is impossible to stop, and your vehicle strikes the child. Since the youngster's body is no higher than the hood, the child almost always will be thrown to the ground.

"Stock cars ordinarily have sufficient road clearance to allow the vehicle to pass over a body. If the child survives the initial shock of being struck, it is possible that his life will be spared if the vehicle passes over him without touching him. "But vehicles which have been lowered below the legal limit invariably will drag and mangle a body, inflicting fatal injuries."

The law provides that the lowest portion of the vehicle other than the wheels shall not be closer to the ground than the lowest point on the wheel.

Claim Denied

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — The county this week turned down the $25,000 claim of Howard Belchamber of 9065 Rosedale Drive, Spring Valley, for injuries he said were suffered by his son Jimmy, 10, when a tree fell on his leg while the boy was playing in Goodland Acres Recreation Park last Sept. 4. The Board of Supervisors rejected the claim on advice of the county counsel's office.
